Best Paper Prize - 10 Years of Academicus International Scientific Journal

On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of publishing of Academicus ISJ, the Editorial Board opens the Call for Paper for Issue 20, June 2019.

15 articles on the fields of Social Sciences and Humanities, which will be included in this issue, will be eligible as nominated to the Best Paper Prize contest, which through an evaluation process by the Authors of this issue and that of the Members of the Editorial Board, will end up with the selection of the First, Second and Third Best Paper.

Within 15 days after the online publishing of Issue 20, June 2019, authors of this issue will be welcomed to send by email at info@academicus.edu.al their ranking by 1 to 14 points for each article (excluding the evaluation of their paper). The same procedure will be followed by the Members of the Editorial Board who will provide their ranking by 1 to 15 points for each article. One representative of ETC, Entrepreneurship Training Center, will also follow up the regularity of the voting process.

After the accumulation of all evaluations, the Editorial Secretariat will provide and publish at the website of Academicus ISJ the list of the 3 best prizes with the total of points each of them and will proclaim the winners of the:

- First Prize which includes travel, accommodation and participation at the Great Gala which will be held the 5th of September 2019 in Albania, the Day of Sanctification of the Albanian Saint, Mother Theresa, the official starting day of Academicus ISJ 10 years ago. The winner will also receive the full chain of 20 Issues in hard copy of Academicus ISJ.

- Second Prize awarding the winner with accommodation and participation at the Great Gala. The winner will also receive the full chain of 20 Issues in hard copy of Academicus ISJ.

- Third Prize awarding the winner with the participation at the Great Gala. The winner will also receive the full chain of 20 Issues in hard copy of Academicus ISJ.
